

South Australia Craft Spirits Seminar 2022

Government of South Australia

Introduction

South Australia has a strong line-up of leading spirit brands and is fast becoming Australia's 'spirit state', with the establishment of a raft of respected craft distilleries in recent years.

From handcrafted gins to award-winning spirits distilled right in the heart of Adelaide, South Australian distillers are blending our state's finest botanicals to produce world-class small-batch gins.

South Australia is internationally recognised as a sustainable producer and exporter of premium food and beverages, and the global gin renaissance presents another opportunity to showcase the products of our clean, green environment.

Our producers here in South Australia have welcomed opportunities to continue working with you to develop and foster long lasting relationships. We hope you enjoy experiencing some of the very best drinks and spirits our beautiful state has to offer.

Co-Founder Cherida Forde's background in health and fitness inspired the decision to infuse the gin with these botanicals containing natural antioxidants and vitamin C.

Impression is made up of botanicals such as calendula, Kakadu plum, finger lime, Aloe Vera and Ribery, some which haven't been used in a gin before. Impression also wanted to create a gin that went perfectly with soda water as well as tonic, so the flavour profile had to be spot on. It's bold, it's different and it leaves an Impression!

A distillery found in the heart of Adelaide's CBD specialising in gin. Founded by three brothers and another good friend. A good part of the reason for creating Red Hen was so the four boys could bring offerings to gatherings with family and friends; something that they'd made, something to share, and something that people could truly enjoy.

Red Hen is distributed mainly throughout South Australia, however, they also have some distribution through Victoria and New South Wales. They also have distributed internationally to China. Their award winning Classic Dry Gin is hand crafted in small batches, 100 per cent vapour infused and is made for everyday drinking. Their Ultraviolet Gin is flamboyant and charismatic, it's ready for party times and is designed to light up the room for any occasion. Not only does it have an amazing violet colour, but it also changes to a bright pink when tonic water is added.

Peel & Tonic is a privately owned South Australian business which started in March 2019 when they identified an opportunity to market high quality garnishes for the rapidly growing gin and cocktail market. They have been first to market in this segment. They are finalists in the Food SA Awards this year for both Best Emerging Business and Best New Product with 'Citrus Circus'. They carefully select the ripest fruit to dry, preserving their natural flavour, aroma, and nutrients. Fruit is sourced predominantly from South Australia. The primary purpose is for alcoholic drinks which will bring mixers and cocktails to life. The products are also perfect for cheeseboard and grazing tables and for healthy snacks. Their products use all natural ingredients and are gluten free as well as being vegan and paleo friendly. They use no sugars, colours, or preservatives. Citrus is their core range including Opulent Orange, Blood Orange, Luscious Lime, Lavish Lemon, Mighty Mandarin and Groovy Grapefruit. The citrus products have a long shelf life of 18 months. Their products now feature in supermarkets, bottle shops, gourmet food stores and health food stores in every state in Australia and they also export to Malaysia. Peel & Tonic have developed edgy marketing and premium product packaging to position their brand in the hearts and minds of customers. Their product makes fun experiences even better and allows customers to replicate their bar experiences at home.
